

Tuition Increase Notice

Attention all students and parents of students:

On September 1st 2017, there will be a small tuition increase at Leading Edge Martial Arts. This increase applies to all tuition due on or after Sept 1st, 2017.

Each year, LEMA evaluates its increase in operating expenses and every year or two there is a small tuition increase to offset the increased expenses. Our expenses have continued to increase and therefore we are over due for a small increase here at LEMA.

An evaluation of the surrounding martial art facilities in the area has shown that even after the September 1st increase, our tuition will remain quite a bit lower than the industry standard, despite the fact that we feel we offer a superior service.

If you do have any questions or concerns regarding tuition, please feel free to speak to Sensei.

Below is a general tuition guide line. If you are unsure what you should be paying, please see Sensei for help.
