Leading Edge Holiday Safety Tips

Leading Edge Martial Arts wants to wish everyone a safe and happy holiday. We all know the hustle and bustle of the holiday season. LEMA, being a family oriented school, wants to share these simple but important tips to help keep you and your loved ones safe this holiday season. We will all be spending countless hours in the stores and malls waiting in never ending lines. Let's focus our safety tips here:

- Try to avoid shopping alone. When alone, you appear vulnerable and an easy target. Muggers, rapists, and kidnapers, cowards that they are, prey on the weak and those that appear to be weak.
- Park in well-lit areas when at stores. Try to avoid parking near vans and other large vehicles. Would-be attackers like to hide there. Be sure to pick a well-lit parking space close to the entrance.
- Parents, making sure nothing happens to the children should be your #1 priority. We have all experienced the overwhelming load of bags and gifts we carry through the stores and malls. Please be sure to always leave a free hand to keep hold of the most important packages of all, your children. While waiting in the long lines, it is easy to become bored and distracted. Stay alert, and keep an eye on the kids. As many times as you have warned your children about staying away from strangers, it is always a good idea to remind them again. Be sure to let them know where to go and who it is okay to talk to if you and your child should become separated.
- Do not leave your packages unattended. Besides the obvious possibility of your expensive purchases walking off with out you, you are leaving your packages vulnerable to be tampered with.

Leading Edge Martial Arts wishes you and yours a safe and happy holiday season!

See you on the mat!
